

BY THE

Governor of the State of Texas

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

WHEREAS, the Forty-first Legislature at its Regular Session passed House Bill No. 509, being "AN ACT authorizing County Auditors in counties containing a population of not less than 41,000 and not more than 42,000 inhabitants as shown by the 1920 Federal Census and in which there may exist, or which there may be created, any improvement, navigation, road, or irrigation district, or any other territory district, having for its purpose the expenditure of public funds for improvement purposes, or improvements of any kind, whether derived from the issuance of bonds or through any character of special assessment, to any exercised control over the finances of said district as provided in Chapter 2 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, 1925, adding Articles 1667a and 1672a Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, so as to provide for compensation of the County Auditor for performing such service, giving the County Commissioners' Court of counties having a population of not less than 22,800 and not over 22,900 shown by 1920 Federal Census the right to continue the County Auditor or employ in its discretion a certified public accountant; providing for compensation for monthly reports, repealing all laws in conflict with this Act; and declaring an emergency"; and,

WHEREAS, said Bill has been vetoed for the reasons set out in the following statement, which has been filed with said Bill in the office of the Secretary of State:

Executive Office
April 1, 1929

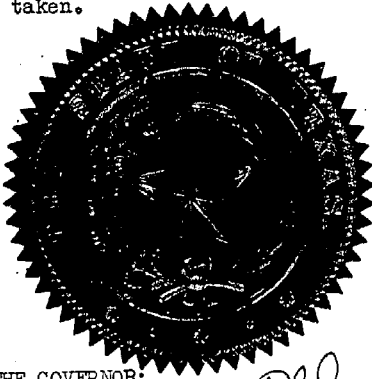

This Bill provides that certain fees paid by any improvement, navigation, road or irrigation districts to the County Treasurer shall in the future be paid to the County Auditor.

The author of this Bill has advised me that certain amendments were made in it and that he is of the opinion that it is not needed legislation in its present form.

Therefore, for the reason stated, I hereby veto this Bill.

Governor of Texas

NOW, THEREFORE, KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, THAT I, DAN MOODY, Governor of the State of Texas, under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and Laws of this State, have vetoed said Bill for the reasons stated and on file, and do hereby proclaim said action to have been taken.

BY THE GOVERNOR:

James G. McCallum
